Guest Speaker; Lorelle St Clair - Basic Education and Literacy Month

- Literacy is a 'bridge from misery to hope'
- Literacy is the ability to read write and use arithmetic
- Basic definitions
- What Rotary is doing
- District Rotary Programs - RRAP
District Grants - 6 clubs - $33 000
- Importance of Early Years
- Importance of having books available in family settings
- Intervention as appropriate

- Outstanding presentation Lorelle, well done

Jodi Lee Foundation

- Geoff read out a thankyou email from Eleanor who was one of the organisers
- John spoke about the success of the Trek and showed a few photos
- Next year's Trek is in SA in late May, just before our Muster in Berri
- It was pointed out that Robin and Annette made use of some leftover food which went to suitable groups rather than go to waste
- Robin and Don both spoke about the success of the Trek

General Business

- Screen sharing. We will try to have no 'screen sharing' during General Business and at other suitable times so people can see each other.
- Aprons. Don spoke about getting Aprons with 'Rotary Nomads' on them. There was quite a deal of discussion. Don will come back with info at a meeting very soon. There will be info published in the Bull^cTin about these in due course.
- Henley on Todd. We looked at a video and there was some discussion about our attendance at this event in 2017. Several members indicated that they would be attending the muster.
- John spoke about the supplementary email list. If partners of Nomads wish to be on this list, let John know,

Jokers Wild

Dennis conducted the draw;

- 1) Paul Northrop's name was drawn and the Queen of Hearts was drawn.
- 2) John Clements's name was drawn and he was successful in drawing the joker.
