Rotarian and President Nominee Robin (President in 2018-2019) spoke to the members about his perspectives, inducted in Nomads 2014 prior 5 years in Rotary, he struggled to come to terms with some of the aspects of Rotary however we should focus on fellowship and musters to learn about Rotary, Robin joined Rotary to help others so they can reach out. Excellent talk.

Thank you PN Robin an excellent talk on his perspective, very well said and some very good points for our club to think about going forward.

Rotarian Mary and PP Allen gave members a talk on our new meeting topic of "Why I Live Where I Live" thank you to Mary and Allen our members found it very interesting, The aim of the talk is to allow our members to get to know each other.

General Business;- President Geoff reminded members that the next round of Jokers Wild starts on 23rd Feb and if members would like to be in it to pay $30 into the kitty in the normal way via bank transfer.

If members would like to order jackets the order needs to be in by 18th Feb and please be guided by the centimetre measurement for your size, the information was sent out via email after last week's meetings on how to place an order.

Rotarian Don McQueen will be placing an order for aprons if any members would like to order one, please let Don Know by 18th Feb.

Rotarian and PE John spoke regarding the Wine for selling as a fund raiser, we make good money for the club, it was agreed to have Shiraz, Sav Blanc and Rose'.

Dine out for RFDS we have $200 in the kitty more to come - to be donated to RFDS at Berri.

Australian Rotary Health musters, details on Facebook and District 9630 newsletter.

Greg spoke on having a muster at Murwillumbah showground, special rate for our club, 36 acres, great facilities, BBQ's, undercover areas, 20 mins to beaches, rain forest with waterfalls etc, Local Rotary club (Central) would love host us they will organise events and outings etc.

Polo shirts available at FastLine Toowoomba for collection or posting.

Jokers Wild: Once again the joker was missing in action. Both Louise Clements and Bob Lemon (Wendy S) failed to secure the joker. Jackpotting next week.

President Geoff gave an update on next week's Roster (15th Feb) as follows,

Chairperson: Rotarian Annette.

Dot Points: PP Mel.

International Toast: Rotarian Mary Henderson.
